

Travel and Accommodation for the make-up artist design show

For the make-up artist design show held on 1 and 2 April 2017 Messe Düsseldorf has agreed with German railways Deutsche Bahn and Düsseldorf Marketing & Tourismus on various travel and accommodation packages that make a visit to the trade fair especially easy.

One bargain package includes trade fair admission and hotel accommodation for as little as € 99 per person in a double room (€40 surcharge for single occupancy). It comprises a 2-day admission ticket for the make-up artist design show, one overnight stay at a First Class hotel (4-star) including breakfast and transfer from the Exhibition Centre to the hotel and back. In addition to this, visitors receive a city guide with city map. Low-cost extra nights are also available. Apart from this, overnight stays at a standard hotel can be booked from € 40 (excl. breakfast and service package).

Thanks to a special offer from German railways travelling to the trade fair is already comfortable and inexpensive. Return trips to Düsseldorf are available to trade fair visitors from € 99 travelling in 2nd class compartments. You can also travel to Düsseldorf by long-distance coach; there are currently numerous direct lines connecting 122 destinations with the metropolis on the River Rhine – including Amsterdam, Berlin, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Munich, Prague, Vienna, Zürich, Brussels and Milan, to name but a few.

You can book both offers via Düsseldorf Marketing & Tourismus by telephone on +49(0)211 17202-839 or by e-mail to messe@duesseldorf-tourismus.de.

The make-up artist design show is open on 1 and 2 April 2017 from 9.00 am to 6.00 pm. in Hall 7 of the Düsseldorf Exhibition Centre. Trade visitor registration ensures that admission is strictly reserved for stage make-up artists and professional MUAs. Online-ordered 1-day tickets cost € 35, 2-day tickets € 50 – on-site 1-day tickets cost € 40, 2-day tickets € 55. For information on the make-up artist design show go to www.make-up-artist-show.com.
